

TYTAN MAGNETIC TILES BRINGS FUN TO NEW HEIGHTS WITH JUMBO-SIZED DISNEY SETS

Expanding creativity and imagination with larger-than-life Disney builds.

Marshfield, MA (August 14, 2025) – Tytan Magnetic Tiles continue to stand out in a crowded market thanks to their premium quality, environmentally friendly materials, accessible pricing, and standout licensing partnership with Disney. Backed by an official STEM.org certification, these magnetic tiles empower parents to support early learning through hands-on play that builds spatial awareness, geometry skills, and problem-solving. With a recently extended licensing agreement, Tytan is thrilled to continue offering Disney-inspired creativity for years to come. Now, fans of the Tytan Disney Collection can take their builds to the next level with two all-new JUMBO Sets. Each set includes over 100 pieces, making them ideal for birthdays, holidays, or any occasion where big imagination deserves a big set.

Building your ideal dream castle is no longer restricted to the realm of imagination! All the tools you can possibly need are contained within the Disney Princess Magnetic Tile JUMBO Castle Set ($99.99)! This robust 172-piece set includes a whimsical and wide variety of translucent pink, blue and white tiles from squares to triangles and specialized connector tiles. Expand your castle or add flourish to the courtyard with 3D tiles in the shape of cubes, triangular prisms and cylinders. And that's not all! Two slides and a ball are included to craft a crazy complex marble run. The super sturdy quality of Tytan's tiles don't compromise their magnetic strength at all! These tiles are easy as can be to stick and pull apart yet stay firmly together while on display. Moana, Rapunzel, Ariel, Tiana and Snow White join the adventure as magnetic tile characters! These highly detailed printed tiles enable you to easily make your own original stories with your favorite princess characters. Whether kids are building high towers, racing marbles, or inventing magical storylines, this set blends open-ended fun with educational benefits, all inspired by their favorite Disney Princesses!

Mickey's train is now pulling into the station! The 112-piece Disney Junior Mickey Mouse JUMBO Train Magnetic Tile Set ($89.99) expands the play value from engine to caboose by introducing brand new tiles to build tracks, a train station, railing, trees and more! The rich, primary-colored translucent tiles include square shapes, miniature rectangles for super-detailed constructions, plus window pieces and hollowed squares for the tracks. 3D prism pieces are included to make an even more impressive train or flesh out the environment through which your train can choo-choo! And let's not forget the 3 wheeled base vehicles which make this set go round. Use the rolling bases to develop any shape of train you want, your imagination is the limit! Decorate and engage in imaginative play using the 3 reusable sticker sheets with shapes and characters like Micky, Minnie, Pluto and more. 112 pieces is a lot to work with for newcomers, so Tytan Toys has thoughtfully included a special workbook to help young minds get started on some basic constructions, inviting them to start brainstorming their own ideas once they get more comfortable.
